

LOST OR STOLEN FOR DAMAGES

Mrs. Pearl Johnson Asks This Amount in Suit Filed Against Dr. M. C. Hutchinson and His Wife, Alleging That the Defendant Unlawfully Retained and Assaulted Her in the Dentist's Office May 9. Tried to Intimidate Argus Editor.

As a result of being forcibly detained in the office of Dr. M. C. Hutchinson, dentist (attorney), 2316 Market street, on May 9, Mrs. Pearl Johnson, 3130 Pine street, has filed suit against the dentist and his wife for several thousand dollars. In her petition, which was filed by Attorney Gen. L. Vaughn, Mrs. Johnson, alleges that on the 9th day of May, she went to the office of Dr. Hutchinson to have a tooth extracted while under the influence of gas, for which she was to pay the dentist $175. She claims that the dentist failed to perform the work she agreed to, but demanded the money. When she refused to pay him, he and his wife threatened her, and by means of force barred the door and prevented her from leaving the office until she was released. She also states that Hutchinson assaulted her, called her vile names, and tried to choke her, which caused her great humiliation.

New Policy Improves B. W. Theatre Shows

The Booker Washington Theatre has shown an improvement during the past few weeks that well deserves special mention. Some time ago Mrs. Turpin announced that on account of the security of her high class colored audience, she would withdraw from the drawing from which she had been drawing. The result has been, not only an opportunity to see real novelties, but has improved the colored acts, and only the best are now booked. And a return engagement means a new act. Among the white acts that have made tremendous hits are the Melvilles, whose electrical juggling was a classic novelty; the troupe of trained boys that thrilled the audience to the verge of excitement and the performing bear, or last week of the pandemonium. Next week another big act, Jack Morrison and Company, direct from the Grand Theatre, is booked, and the balance of the program is made up of real meritorious colored acts.

The Redemption

The "Redemption," which will be rendered at Union Methodist Church, Leffingwell Ave., and Pine street, June 1st, promises to be one of the rarest and most beautiful musical treats of the season.

The "Redemption" is an oratorio of the Christ told in song. It is taken from the Bible narrative, which relates to the greatest of the pictures in the crucifixion, the resurrection and the ascent which immediately follow this great historical event upon which all Christianity is based. The use of Gounod's works is considered the best of all modern sacred music. The rhythmic precision, the purity of the vocal beauty, the pictures in the sublime and the charming melody which characterizes his works make him a favorite among lovers of music for music's sake.

One does not need to be a critic of music to enjoy this oratorio. One has only to listen to catch the beauty in its minutest detail, to see the pictures in the sublimity of its grandeur. The other two things necessary to a complete enjoyment of an oratorio, are knowledge of the subject matter and an efficient rendition of the same. The author in selecting the Christ as a story furnished the first requisite for anyone known in general way the heart touching story of the Christ, and the management in selecting Prof. Gerald J. Tyler as conductor furnished the other requisite.

Everything that might be said about Prof. Tyler's ability in this line of work would be superfluous. Those who have heard his choruses and have seen his masterly handling of these know his ability. To others it might be said in passing that as an interpreter and performer of music and as a trainer of the voice his equal has not been seen in these parts and his reputation concerning the matter referred to, is nationwide. The chorus of between 40 and 50 voices is being trained by him and is as thoroughly drilled as to be Attorney Homer G. Phillips provided and E. Staton was secretary. Mr. Phillips in an address took occasion to severely criticize the methods of the city committee on the methods of selecting a "good" candidate.

DR. B. G. SHAW RETURNS TO CITY

Tells of Work of the A. M. E. Zion General Conference at Louisville. Receives Gold Medal for Meritorious Service. Warmly Received by Members of Church Tuesday Night.

Bishop Kyle, Prof. Martin, Educational Secretary, and Rev. T. W. Wallace, Editor of "Western Star of Zion," New Orleans to Reside in St. Louis.

On his return from the 25th quad-rannual session of the A. M. E. Zion Church, which has just closed at Louisville, Ky., the minister appeared somewhat tired and fatigued, and said that it was work from the beginning to the end, and that they did not finish their work. He stated he was well pleased at the work of the conference and especially with the election of Dr. W. H. Guler, as financial secretary.

Two bishops were retired during the session, namely: Bishop Hood and Bishop Harts, both of whom were very old. Four new bishops were elected: Dr. L. W. Kyle, Dr. R. B. Bruce, Dr. W. L. Lee and Dr. George G. Clouston.

Upon his election as bishop, Dr. Kyle chose St. Louis for his future home. Prof. J. W. Martin, educational secretary, and Rev. Z. W. Wallace, editor of "Western Star of Zion," all chose St. Louis for their home.

When asked about his religious life, Dr. Kyle stated that he was a member of the church and that his friends used his name, and gave him a large number of votes, but he could not be true to his last words to his friends, both white and black, of this city as well as to his congregation, that he would not leave his work here. He referred the reporter to the article which appeared in the St. Louis Republic May 2, as to his position.

Rev. B. G. Shaw, pastor of Metropolitan A. M. E. Congregation, Has Successful Record.

Rev. B. G. Shaw, pastor of Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion Church, at Leavenworth and Garrison avenues, will leave for Louisville, Ky., to attend the General Conference, accompanied by a delegation of 25 from St. Louis and 75 from California, Kansas and Arkansas.

Rev. B. G. Shaw, who has been pastor of Metropolitan Church for the last six years, was slated for promotion at the coming conference at Louisville to general secretary position, which pays a salary of $5,000 a year. He decided last night to sacrifice his personal ambition in response to the appeal of his congregation to return to the pastorate of Metropolitan Church, which has had a most phenomenal growth during his leadership.

Growth Has Been Rapid.

Majors' Oxford College showed by these demonstrations just what has been achieved within the 21 months in business and they have undoubtedly made more progress than any other similar college. This college has ample laboratory facilities and manufactures various scientific apparatus which are guaranteed under the pure Food and Drug Act. Books used by the students and graduates, have been

DR. B. G. SHAW

Six years ago Metropolitan Church, with a membership of 400 communicants, occupied the humble edifice at 2625 Morgan street, valued at $20,000. Which was encumbered with a mortgage of $19,000. By careful management the debt has been paid off and the old church remodelled at a cost of $5,000. The congregation grew so rapidly that larger quarters were needed. A year ago Rev. Mr. Shaw purchased the present site, at Leavenworth and Garrison avenues, formerly occupied by Union M. E. Church, where the Negro congregation, now 2,000, has in operation a day nursery, kindergarten, cooking school, sewing school, grammarian and swimming pool.

The community work of Rev. Mr. Shaw won the commendation of Mayor Kiel and the police authorities, and many worthy and prominent white residents in the West End joined the Negro friends in petitioning for his return to the St. Louis pastorate.

Bishop Coming to St. Louis. The General Conference of the A. M. E. Zion Church has a membership of more than 600,000. The Louisville Meeting will be presided over by Bishop Alexander Walters, of New York, and most prominent of the city. Bishop G. W. Blackwell, of Philadelphia, who recently decided to make his residence in St. Louis. It is expected that the present conference will appropriate $5,000 for the purchase of an episcopal residence here.

Among the delegates who will accompany Rev. Mr. Shaw are: Rev. D. Davis, F. R. Rev. Thomas W. Wallace, William H. Fields, Thomas J. Brewer, Mrs. S. D. Davis, Mrs. B. G. Shaw and Mrs. Lucy Mifflin.

The World's Three Greatest Books

By Sidney C. Tapp, F.R.S.

"The Truth About the Bible," about five hundred pages, $1.00. "Why Jesus

Was a Man and Not a Woman,"

three hundred pages, $1.00. "Sexology of the Bible," over one hundred and seventy-five pages, $1.00. All three books are booklets treat of all the great questions of the Bible, and show that the Bible is a book of sex and a book of spirit, and that sex is the dividing line between the physical and spiritual worlds. They tell that disease, sickness and insanity are within the sex, and that sex is the great factor in the cause of death. They are arranging the attention of the medical, scientific, philosophical and theological worlds and people of all classes as to other books of modern times, and will probably do more to shape the thoughts of the human race than any books ever written in the history of the world.

They are daily going to the great thinkers of all parts of the civilized world.

"I would rather be the author of the Truth About the Bible, than to be the President of the United States. It is the Bible, as therein contained, is so daring and its conclusions are so unanswerable that the human intellect struggles under the light presented.

For this it is the world's greatest book.

Mr. Tapp's books on the Bible, and the sex interpretation of the Bible will live until time shall be no more, and will may perish and Empires may decay, but the ideas presented in these books will live. These books on the Bible will never die."

—Prof. J. B. Harris, M. A.

"Mr. Tapp's works on the Bible will do more to empty our jails, houses of correction and hospitals than any other line that has ever been written in the world, in our opinion, or any nothing of the great good that will come from truth that they will do the human race.

We have indeed found the world's idea that should be in every home and library in the civilized world."

—W. A. Thompson, M.D.

money of book or books you desire to

Around the grave where thou art laid.

and true. Al. was a permanent acquisition to the craft and lent dignity thereto. He lived for those around him, and always cast a helping hand to the needy of his profession. He was a true and longer after he had quitted the workshop. We knew him, we had worked side by side and felt it a duty to pay this tribute to the memory of our fellow-craftsman. It was held to rest

OARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to relatives and friends, the ministers, pallbearers, pupils and teachers of Becker Washington school, those who sent messages for their kindness and sympathy and for the many beautiful floral offerings in the loss of our dear husband and father, Sandy Spear, who died on May 19, 1916.

Mrs. Sophie Spear and Family,
Kirkwood, Mo.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our darling father, Lewis Phillips, who died one year ago, May 21st, 1915.
Silently stole the angel of death,
Into our happy home
And stole our darling father—
That better home beyond.

Dearest father, how we miss you,
Never shall thy memory fade.
Sweetest thoughts shall ever linger
Around the grave where thou art laid.
Sadly missed by wife, Mary Phillips, and children.

IN MEMORIAM
In affectionate remembrance of our darling son and brother, Bobbie Ford, who departed this life one year ago,
May 25, 1915.
A precious one from us has gone.
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
Sadly missed by mother, sister, and friends. Signed, Mrs. Agnes Ford.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving remembrance of our little daughter and sister, Wilbur Brown,
who departed this life one year ago,
May 31, 1915.
One year has passed and our hearts are filled with grief.
For as time goes on we miss you dear;
We miss your foot steps and miss you everywhere.
Hence we cannot let it go to bed,
Sadly missed by father and mother,
Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Brown, little sister and friends.

REMEMBERED
On May 17 little Richard Lee, of Kinloch Park, departed this life.
He was four years old and a much loved child.

He is gone, but not forgotten,
We cannot forget him as he stays in pain and grief;
When there was a sweet peace awaiting,
Where pain nor grief never again is,
And we will meet him again, never more to part.

Sadly missed by aunt, Laura Anderson.
IN MEMORIAM
We wish to thank our many friends and especially the Sons and Daughters of Faith, for their kindness and attention shown during the recent six-week illness of Mrs. Gray.

There are some people who attend weddings with just as much enthusiasm as a baseball or tennis fan. Whether they are invited or not, and seemingly enjoy the excitement of the moment and the attendant fuss and feathers. There are some people who attend weddings merely out of morbid curiosity. SIN OR SINS

BY REV. J. H. RALSTON.

Secretary of Correspondence Department,
Moody Bible Institute of Chicago

TEXT—Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord.—Luke 5:8.

There is no indication that when Peter used those words to the Lord at the sea of Galilee, he had committed any particular sin for which he was especially repentant. This suggests the inquiry as to whether we should distinguish between sin and sins.

In the popular conception a sin is any violation of God's law; several such violations would be called sins. When we are studying man as a sinner before God, should we have in mind individual sins, or something back of them that we may call sin?

Reform Not Sufficient.
This inquiry is quite important from the fact that we hear a great deal about the sins of men, and little about their sin. The pastor or evangelist very frequently urges men to get right with God, and in doing so he often cries: "Quit your sinning!" "Get on the water wagon!" "Stay at home at night!" "Stop your gossiping!" etc.

The result of such exhortation is that many men cease to obey the exhortation to the exhortation of the word of God, and the life is greatly improved. What has taken place? Practically nothing has been reformed, and there is no guaranty that it will be. But are these individual transgressions of law all that is in the mind of the Spirit, speaking in the Bible? In many places the word of God is spoken at in such connection that the individual transgression can hardly be in mind. "In sin did my mother conceive me," "God be merciful to me a sinner!" "There is a sin (the father is not in the original) not unto death;" "I am a sinful man, O Lord;" "O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" In some of these, and many more might be cited, is there any reference to particular sins? The translation is that there is something back of the individual sin: a state, or condition, or tendency that is properly called sin.

Sinning the Law of Life.
When it is said "The soul that sinneth it shall die," we are not to understand that a man who sins shall die any more than when we consider the words "He that is born of God sinneth not," in the latter case it is not a question of a man committing a particular sin, as may be easily learned from an intelligent study of the original language. In the American Revised Version the text is translated "Does not sin." That is an approach in the correct idea, but a better expression would be "Does not practice sin." That is, sin is not the rule of the man's life. "The soul that sinneth it shall die," does not mean that a man who commits a single sin, or indeed many of them, necessarily dies on that account, although he will suffer penalty, but it means that the whole law of life is sinning, will die.

Paul doubtless had sins which troubled him, but he saw something back of those particular sins and cried out "Who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" We can hardly think of using extravagant language in that connection if he had only in mind reformed sins. That is, sin is not a question of a man committing a particular sin, as may be easily learned from an intelligent study of the original language. In the American Revised Version the text is translated "Does not sin." That is an approach in the correct idea, but a better expression would be "Does not practice sin." That is, sin is not the rule of the man's life. "The soul that sinneth it shall die," does not mean that a man who commits a single sin, or indeed many of them, necessarily dies on that account, although he will suffer penalty, but it means that the whole law of life is sinning, will die.

As long as man only has his eye on his individual transgressions and thinks of freeing himself from their evil effects, he will never get right with God. The most perfect of the blessing of salvation through Jesus Christ. His prayer for pardon is good, but would be much better if he would pray "Caste me in me a sinner, O God." He is then getting at the root of the matter for he readily sees that if the fountain is pure the stream will be pure.

A New Heart Needed.
Regeneration is fairly well presented by most ministers and evangelists, but it needs more emphasis than it is receiving, and it is proper distinction could be made between sin and sins, there would be some thought of the seed of the new heart and there would be no satisfaction nor rest until that is secured.

God is as able to make the fountain of life pure as to pardon the individual sin. While a man is sinning to him, it is not that which he asks men to give to him, rather his heart. "God, give me this heart." One of the deepest problems that we have in the Bible, is in the Old Testament and has as application here: "A new heart also will I give thee and a new spirit will I put within thee: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh and I will give you a heart of flesh." God is most honored as we seek for the wisdom and the aid of blessings that the plan of redemption through Jesus Christ offers.

LESSON FOR MAY 28

THE COUNCIL AT JERUSALEM.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 15:1-3.
GOLDEN TEXT—"The freedom God Christ sets us free—Gal. 5:1."

The events of this lesson are outstanding in Christian history. Paul's appeal to the Gentiles and the large number of them who accepted the Gospel made most acute the question: "Must Gentile believers become Jewish proselytes upon accepting the Christian faith and be governed by Jewish law and customs?" It would be exceedingly interesting to divide a class and let them debate this controversy stated as follows: "Resolved, That the Mosaic law should not have been imposed upon Gentile Christians." The date of this council was A. D. 50 or 51, and the scene is laid first in Antioch of Syria, and then in Jerusalem.

I. A Division of Opinion (vv. 1-6). Luke does not call name those who agreed and those who disagreed. However, very clearly indicates how the Holy Spirit dealt with the situation. "To a man justified by faith, or by the works of the law?" is a familiar question with modern application. The Holy Spirit, to avoid a rupture in the yet weak church, directs that Paul, Barnabas and Titus should go and "certain others" who are not named, should carry the question to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. Those who were of the opinion that the law should be kept (Gal. 2:13), the "pillars" (Gal. 2:9) and they received the delegation from Antioch in public (15:4), also being the opinion of the majority (15:22).

II. The Argument (vv. 6-16). It will not do to be harsh in condemning Paul's accusers. The Pharisees felt deeply their position. The Jews chosen people they were marked by circumcision. Jesus, the promised Messiah, was a Jew. Social religious, racial differences are hard to reconcile in one church today. But little was asked of the Gentiles in contrast with all they received. Entrance to church membership could not be too easy if circumcision were imposed as a test of their sincerity. Peter brought forward the plea before the council that God had led him to the Holy Spirit to the uncircumcised Christians, "and put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith" (vv. 8, 9). God bears the same witness today to those who refuse to be bound by Mosaic traditions as regards the seventh day and other such details. Paul's argument was that God had wrought signs and wonders among the Gentiles and thus set his seal upon his promise of salvation apart from legalistic works (v. 12). Read in this connection Gal. 3:16, Titus 2:8, 13; 10:4, and Phil. 3:9.

III. The Argument Continued (vv. 17-19). The apostle James presented the chief argument in connection with the verdict he pronounced. It was that if according to Old Testament Scripture that God will take a people for his name from among the uncircumcised Gentiles as well as from among the law-keeping Jews (vv. 13-17). With Paul this was a vital question and we can at least imagine his feelings as he puts forth a life-and-death struggle for the truth. As Peter reminded the people of his earlier words when "the Holy Spirit came upon Cornelius and his household" he caused them to keep their attention fixed on the Holy Spirit.

IV. A Wise Decision (vv. 19-29). It was James the Just, brother of our Lord, the writer of the epistle and the bishop over-seer of the church at Jerusalem, who rendered the decision. In his argument (vv. 13-15) he saw in these Gentile converts reported by Barnabas and Saul a fulfillment of the promise of the Holy Spirit to the Gentiles of today be "made a nation," viz., that these Gentiles be not disturbed except in such matters as would tend to more fully separate them from the heathen identity they had just left, (a) "Pollution of idols," (b) "Fornication," (c) "From things strangled," (d) "From the blood of man," (e) "From the blood of man," (f) "From the blood of man," (g) "From the blood of man," (h) "From the blood of man," (i) "From the blood of man," (j) "From the ## ALABAMA KITCHEN PUTTING ON NEW SPRING ATTIRE

The Alabama Kitchen, at 1039 Wiltshire street, is receiving its annual spring beauties. Mr. Huey is repainting and re-papering his popular work and cafe preparatory to an anticipated heavy summer patronage. The Alabama is well known for its wholesome meals and excellent service. AT THE BOOKER WASHINGTON

An entertaining show is on the boards at the Booker Washington Theater this week and giving good satisfaction. Davis & Elmer, singers and jokers are a lively pair. The female member has a good voice. Their line of talk is interesting, especially their burlesque puns.

Winn & Nugent, the dancers, have a changed act, that gives Mr. Winn a chance to display considerable comedy. Their dancing is their main feature and is loudly applauded.

Clarence Powell, the well-known minstrel man, stars in rich and humorous songs and a couple of song numbers. His geographical song is a tremendous hit.

Stamper & Jones close the show with excellent dancing. Joking song numbers and character imitations. They receive generous applause and close strong.

"The Secret of the Submarine" started off with an enthusiastic crowd last Monday. This is one of the most sensational serials ever shown. Don't fail to get in on the second episode, next Monday.

MILLS AGAIN TO MANAGE THE GIANTS

Craze Little Base Ball General Will Pilot the Team for EA Brock, the South St. Louis Magistrate

First Game Sunday at Brock's Park. New Faces in the Line Up—Strong Teams Already Booked

Charles A. Mills has again assumed the management of the St. Louis Giants. When Ed. Brock, the South St. Louis magistrate, took over this famous aggregation of diamond stars, last Friday, he immediately did the wise thing by appointing the only real baseball general in St. Louis, Mills, to handle the team.

The first game will be played Sunday with Brock's All Stars at Brock's Park, 3500 S. Broadway. Game starts at 3:15. A big parade will precede the game, starting at Compton and Lawton at 1 o'clock. The admission will be Bleachers 25c, Grand Stand 35c.

Williams, Webster, Hewett and Handy left last week for New York, but at least two of these will be back in line Sunday. Jimmie Lyons left Wednesday on a scouting trip and will bring back new talent. The following new faces are expected Sunday: Wickware, Barber, McNair and Kenevise, with a possibility of the best-footed Shively.

The other members of the team all ready here are Wallace, who has been retained as captain, Lyons, McAdoo, Bennett, Kimbro, Wade and Gatewood.

Robt Foster and his American Giants will play here June 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9. Other strong teams including a return series with the Cuban Stars, will follow. The Giants will play in Belleville Decoration Day.

Ed. Brock, who owns and controls the Giants, is now forming an amusement company to be known as the St. Louis American Amusement Association. One of the finest groves in the west is now being considered and will be turned over to the colored people.

Mills will be business manager of the new enterprise.

INTER-STATE OYSTERS BROCK

The Interstate Baseball League voted to expel Ed. Brock and his All Stars Wednesday night, because Brock had decided to play the Giants as the main attraction in a double header on Sunday. The "Litha-Bible" with Brock, for he knows the Giants are the biggest drawing card in St. Louis. Rally, fans, rally.

SOCIAL CENTER LEAGUE. The Social Center Baseball League schedule calls for four games in O'Fallon Park Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The teams will line up: Zion vs. Lane, Sumner vs. Central, Garret vs. St. James, Lincoln vs. Y. M. C. A. The league is in need of good volunteer umpires, who are willing to assist the popular sport. Sumner will play Lincoln field, in East St. Louis, Decoration Day.
